

RACRMC Newsletter June 2024

Welcome to the June newsletter

As the first six months of the year ends, the Championship is now half way through the year and a great battle is being had, with some crews about to score their sixth set of point on next month's Tour of Epynt.

Championship News

Championship Points after the Argyll Rally are attached to this email and can be found on the web site www.racrmc.org

The battle for the championship crown, category and class positions are very open for the second half of the season.

Next up is Round 6 the Tour of Epynt on the 20 / 21 July, entries are still available for this event via www.porttalbotmotorclub.co.uk

No updates yet for Round 7 the Woodpecker Rally closely followed by the Trackrod Rally. As information is published this will be posted on the championship Facebook pages.

Rally Anglo Caledonian

Regulations and Entries are available for this new event via the web site. The organisers are really pleased that in the first 3 weeks of the event being open for entries the current entry level is:

70 for the two day Rally Anglo Caledonian

4 for the one day Anglo Rally and 2 for the one day Caledonian Rally.

Event information can be found via the web site.
