

Rally Anglo Caledonian 2024

Media Information & Accreditation

The media accreditation process for the 2024 Rally Anglo Caledonian is now open and will close on Friday November 8, 2024.

Applications from all Motorsport UK Level 2 media will be considered but not guaranteed accreditation. Other candidates may be granted guest access to the event: this will be at the discretion of the organisers.

Applications from 2024 Level 2 tabard holders should include:

Name

Tabard number

Motorsport UK licence number

E-mail address

Full home address

Covering letter from media outlet (specific to the event)

Examples of previous event coverage (if previously accredited)

Home and mobile phone numbers

Car registration, make, model and colour for the car to be used on the event

Applications from non-Level 2 tabard holders should include:

Name

E-mail address

Full home address

Home and mobile phone numbers

Car registration, make, model and colour for the to be used on the event

Covering letter from media outlet

Examples of previous work

All applications should be sent by e-mail to paul@tfmpr.com

The final date for applications is 8 November 2024.

Any applications received after that date will be declined.
